THE SABBATH. [Sidney Smith pronounced the following connet ong of the most beautiful in the English language.] With silont awe I hail the sacred mora, Which slowly wakes, while all the fields are still, A soothing calm on every breeze is borne, A graver murmar gurgles from the rill; And acho answers softer from the hill, And softer sings the linnet from the thorn. The skylark warbles in a tone less shrill. Hail! light serone; hail! sacred Sabbath morn The rocks float allent by in airy draves; The sun a placid yellow lustre shows; The gales, that lately sighed along the groves, Have hushed their downy wings in sweet repose The hovering rack of clouds forgets to move. So smiled the day when the first morn arose.
